Continuing Education Packet for Pharmacists and Pharmacy Technicians

Greetings!

Please read and use the following information to claim continuing education (CE) credits for pharmacists and pharmacy technicians from the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education (ACPE) offered as part of the 340B Coalition Winter 2022 Conference for select sessions. Please see the chart of sessions offering ACPE CE credits on page 3 below.

Pharmacy CE is offered only for in-person and live broadcast session attendance. You must attend at the date and time it is scheduled to receive the CE code. This code will not be available after this event.

You can use this form or the notes section in the mobile app or hybrid platform to keep track of the sessions that you attend. Please write down or note the CE code displayed at the conclusion of the sessions offering credits.

Please note that you will only have access to sessions that match your Stakeholder Group. If a session is only open to Covered Entities—then only those will have access.

These continuing education activities for pharmacists and pharmacy technicians have been developed through a joint providership of ProCE, LLC and 340B Health. ProCE is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Pharmacy Education as a provider of continuing pharmacy education (CPE). Participants attending the Pre-Conference Workshops and the 2022 Annual 340B Coalition Winter Conference CPE activities may earn a maximum of 13.25 contact hours of CPE credit (1.325 CEUs). Note: some of the CPE sessions are being held concurrently. The sessions offering ACPE credit are designated with a UAN (Universal Activity Number) and hours of CPE credit. The release date for these CPE activities is January 31–February 2, 2022. Conference registration fees cover the cost of CPE credit. Statements of completion will be issued at www.ProCE.com upon successful completion of the online CPE activity evaluations. All evaluations for the live activities must be completed no later than March 4, 2022. No partial credit will be given for any individual session. CE Credits will be automatically uploaded to NABP/CPE Monitor upon completion of each session evaluation. NOTE: participants must “claim credit” in the CE Center for CE credits to be reported to CPE Monitor. Conflict of interest disclosures are required of all faculty and shall be provided to all participants at the conference.
